ORIENTATION ASSEMBLY

THE PATTERN IS OUTLINED...

As the weaver draws many patterns, one of which will be the basic design for his fabric, so the incoming freshman considers the subjects and extra-curricular activities which will be the basis of his four year high school program.

The weaver must carefully plan and finally choose the pattern which promises the best result. So the student is counseled in a wise selection. After being acquainted with each activity, he will be led to choose the courses which best suit his needs, interests, and talent.

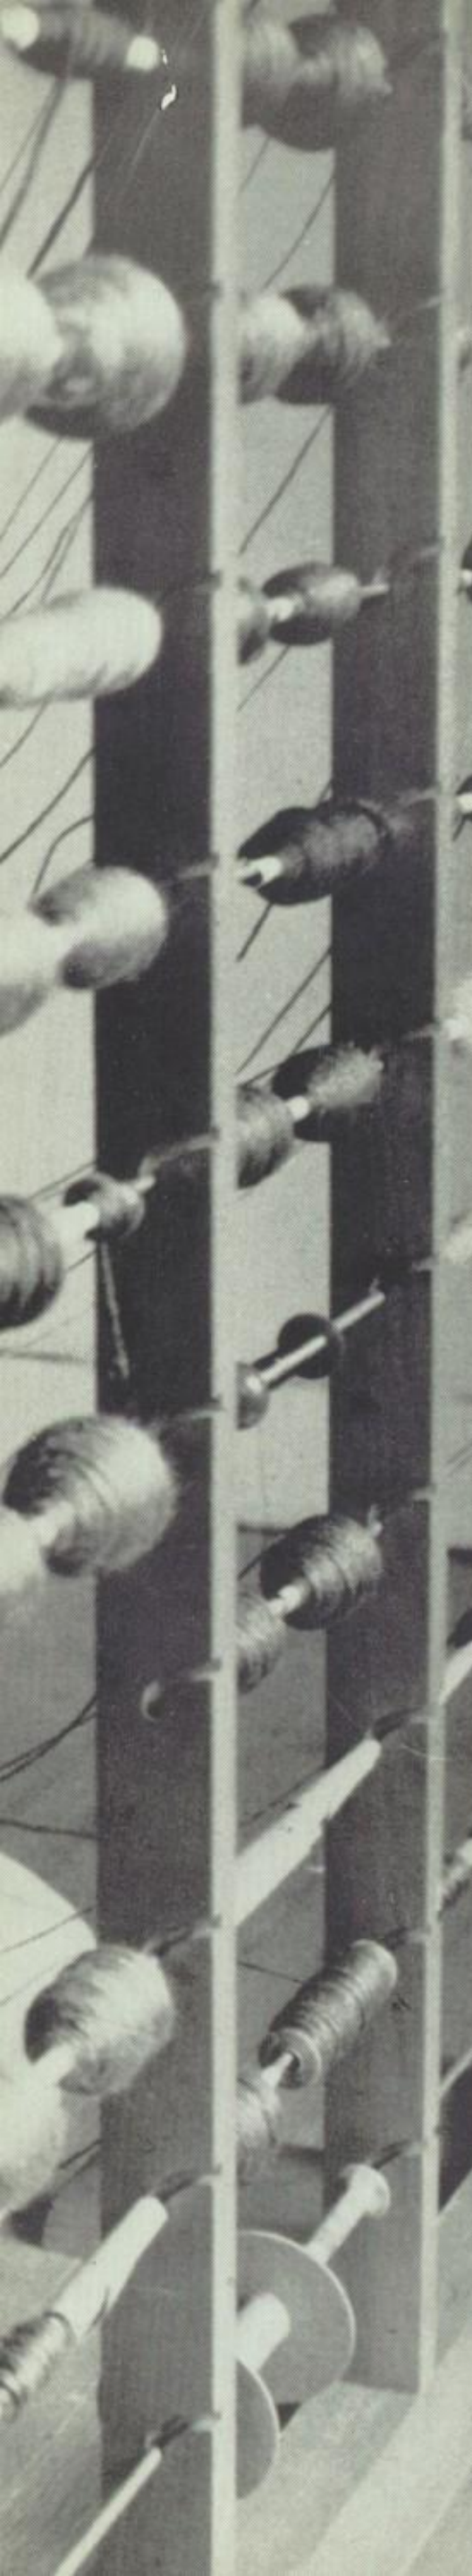

The Selection

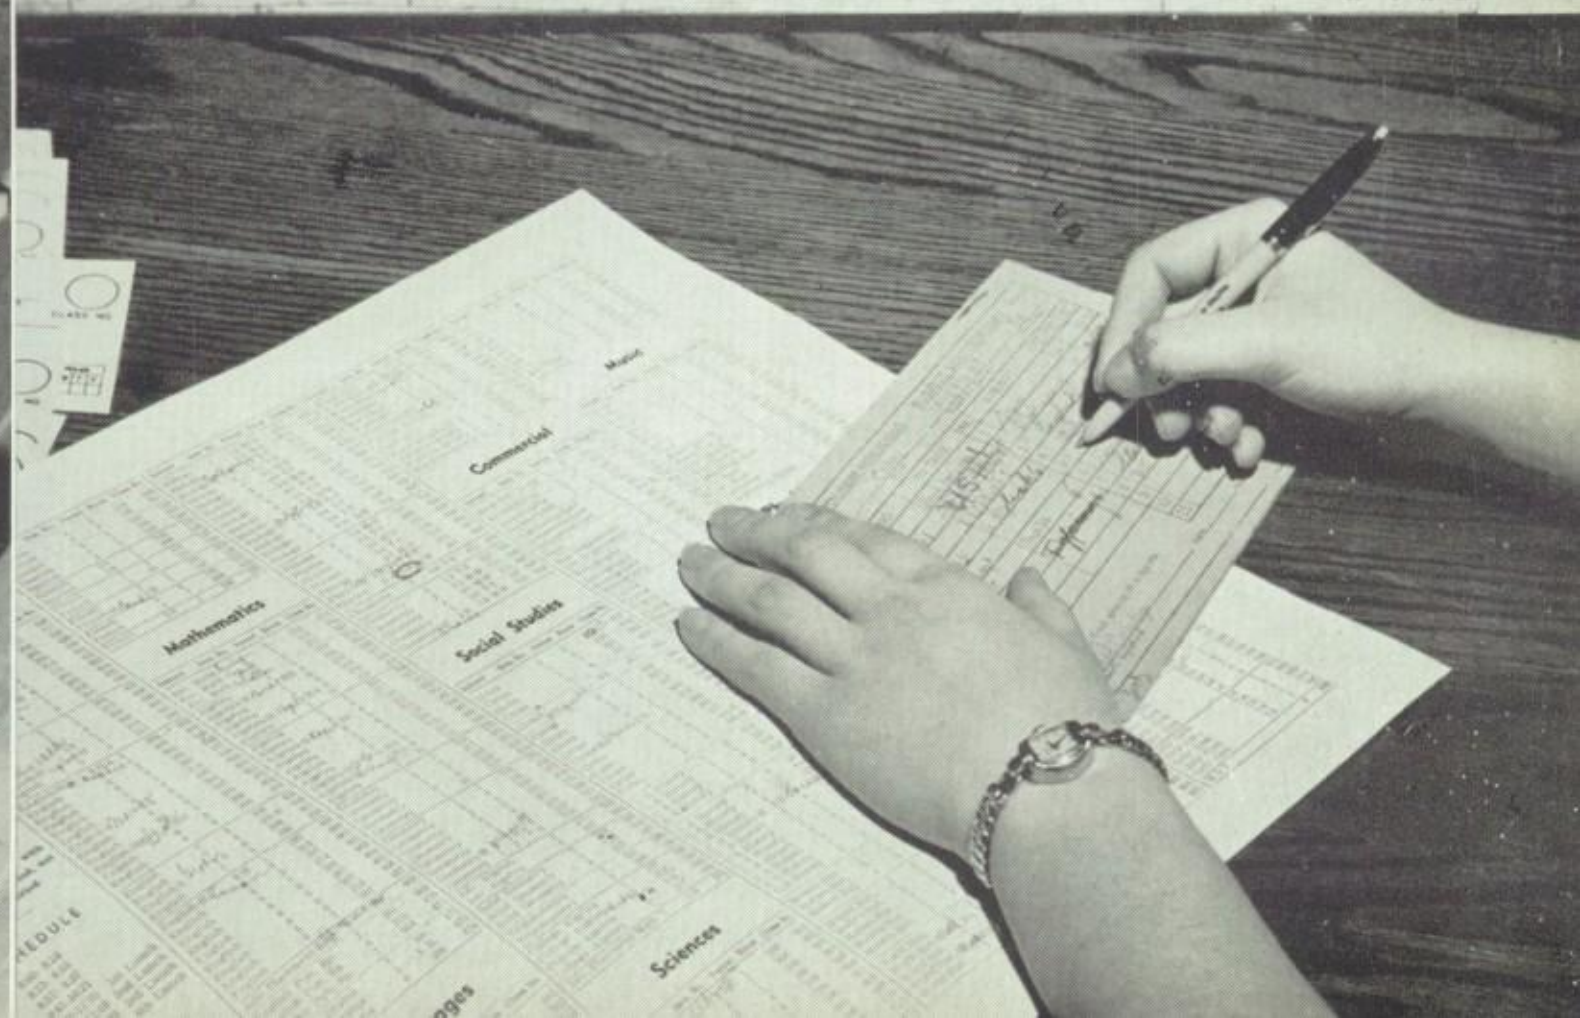

MASTER PROGRAM

THE SELECTION IS MADE...

As the weaver thoughtfully selects his yarn with regard to weight, strength and color harmony, so the student considers the subjects and activities and carefully plans his schedule for the next four years, — during which time much of the fabric of his life will be woven and its future pattern determined.

CLASSES BEGIN

THE START IS MADE...

The fabric of the student's life and career begins to take shape. The weaver, sits at his loom, passing the shuttle back and forth, intertwining the weft threads with the warp. Each day progress is made, and the pattern takes shape.

ADMINISTRATION

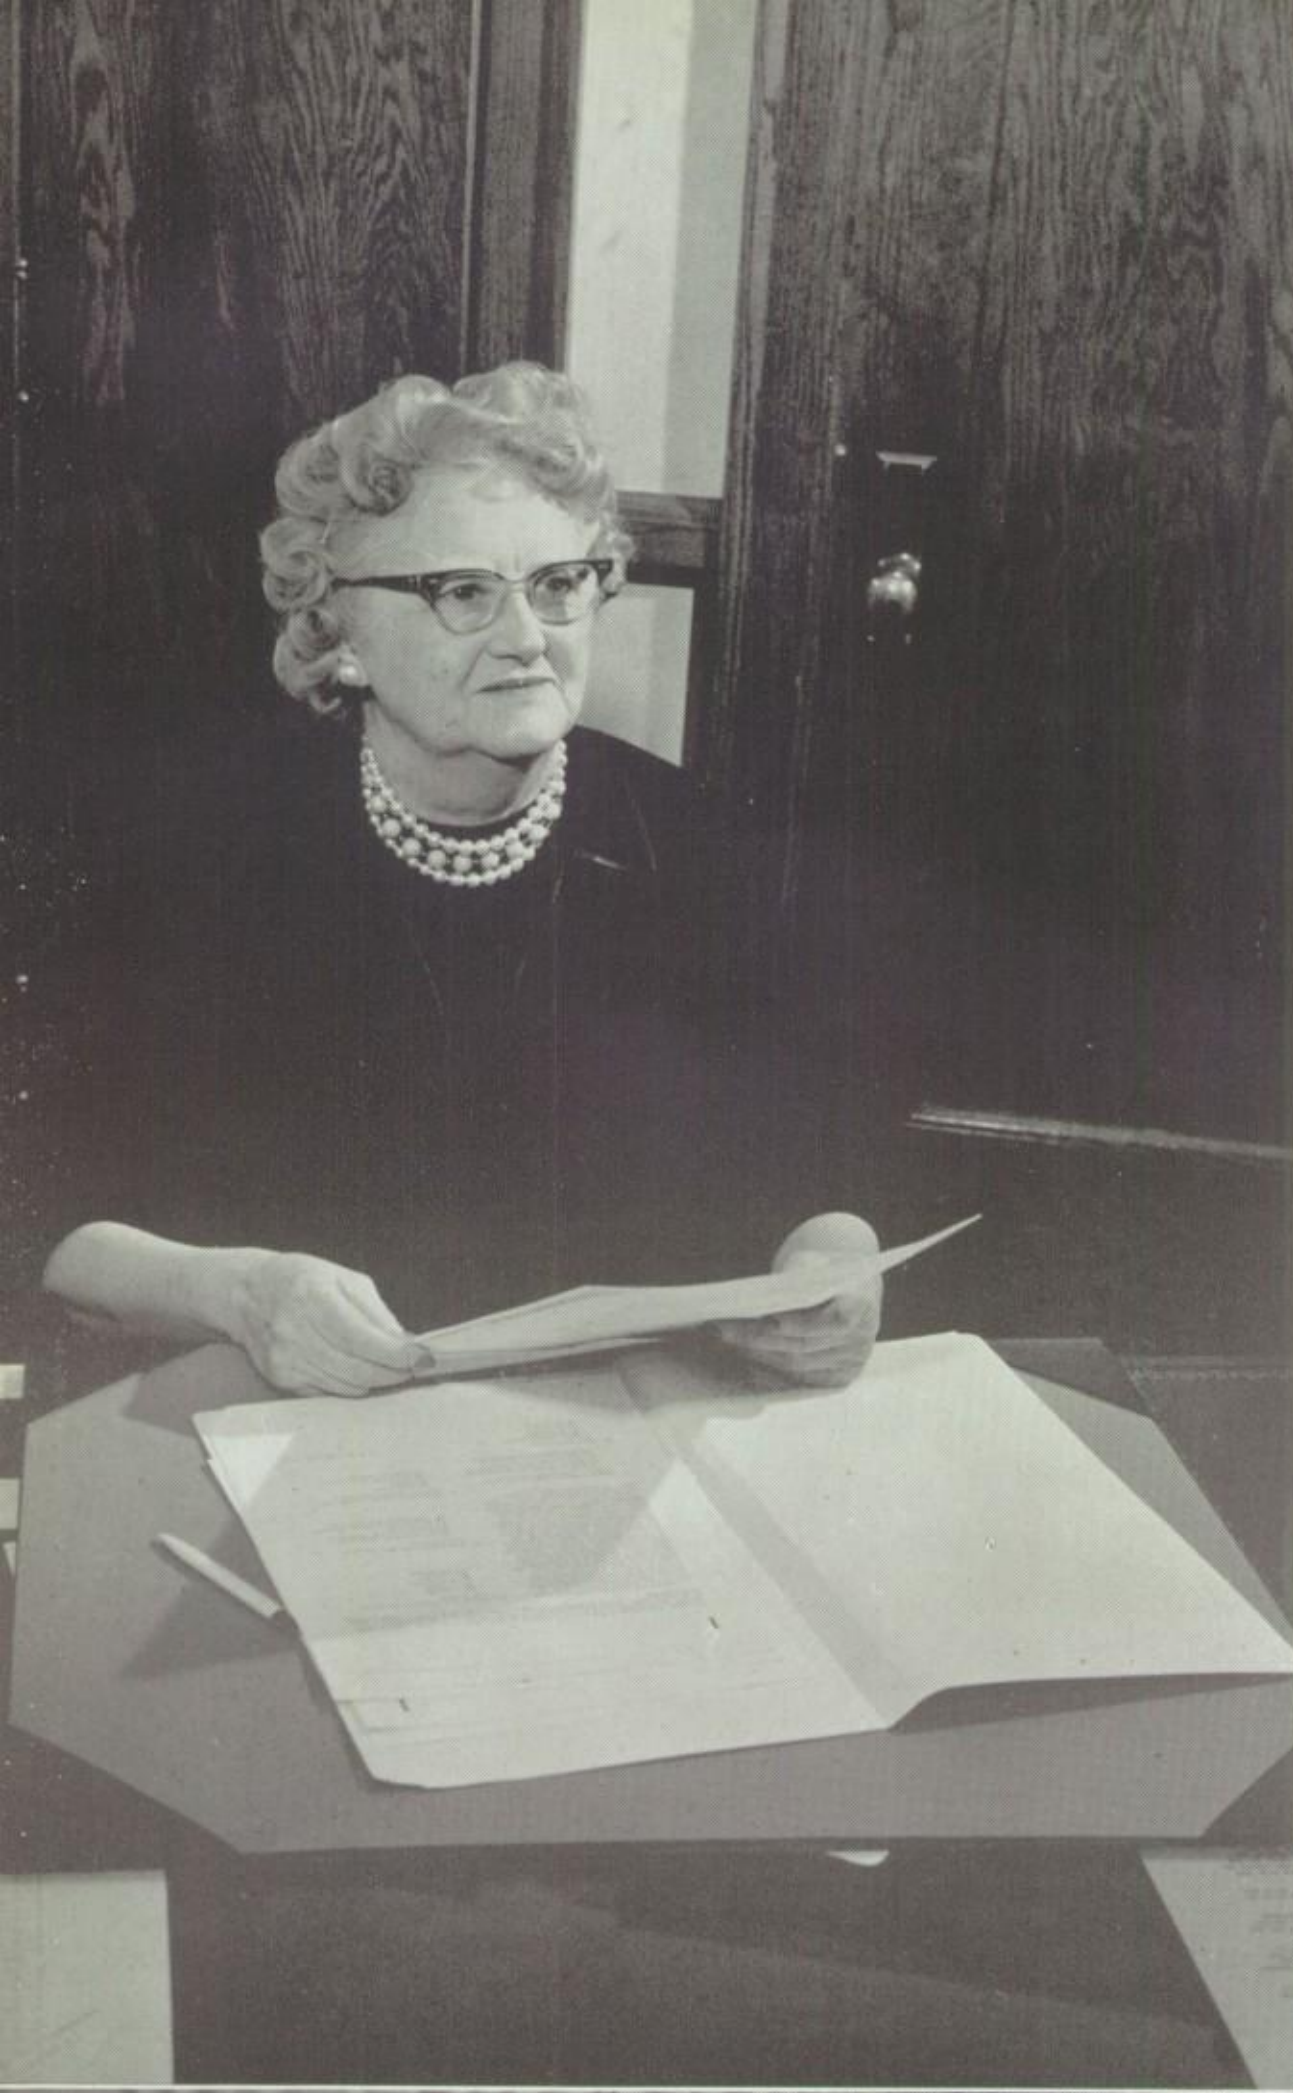

The aim of our administrative staff is to co-ordinate the work of all departments. This staff, headed by Miss Mulroy, principal, and Mr. Kosloff and Mrs. Baker, assistant principals, co-operates with the Chicago Board of Education in bringing modern concepts of education to the students.

On the job at all times to help students are our able guidance counselors. With the abolishment of student self-registration, Mr. Carroll has the added task of organizing and planning pupils' programs. Completing the staff are Mrs. Lassen, who gives helpful information to college bound students; Mrs. Strawn, who aids students who have had trouble adjusting to high school situations; and Mrs. Bird, who has charge of attendance records.

Mary D. Mulroy, principal, is never too busy to stop her work to help students with their plans and problems.

Administrators meet to confer on the school program for the year.

Mrs. Isabel Lassen, placement counselor; Mr. John Carroll, registrar; Mrs. Colette Bird, attendance counselor; Mrs. Josephine Strawn, adjustment counselor; Mrs. Eloise Baker, assistant principal; Mr. Albert Kosloff, assistant principal.

Visitors to our office are greeted by the smiles of our three clerks: Mrs. Kathryn Kreuz, Mrs. Joan Rafferty, and Mrs. Evelyn Lawlor.

Mrs. Ruth Dawson and Mrs. Ellen Courtney, librarians, check on spelling of a word.

ENGLISH

Through the study of English comes the ability to express oneself. In order to accomplish this aim, it is necessary for a student to become well versed in such areas as reading, writing, speaking, and listening. These areas, representing the four goals of South Shore's English Department, are satisfied through the means of a three-level program including advanced placement, honors, average, and remedial classes. Such classes give every student the opportunity to work to the best of his ability. They also offer to those above-average students the opportunity to receive college credits while still in high school.

Reading Center students wait for the flash of phrases on the screen while using the tachistoscope.

MATHEMATICS

In order to take care of the needs of all the pupils, the math department has a three level program. For gifted students, an honors course which telescopes four years of classes into three is provided. A fifth year advanced placement course is offered as a part of the honors sequence, coupling the knowledge learned in high school math with calculus and analytical geometry. Through this extra year of math, a student may place out of its equivalent in college. Average and remedial programs fulfill the necessary requirements of remaining students.

SCIENCE

Because this era is dependent upon technical knowledge and application, the study of science has become an increasingly vital component in the curriculum of modern education. The South Shore Science Department strives to answer this need by stimulating the student's curiosity through an expanded and diversified program. For the average student there are highly motivating standard courses; unlimited opportunities are provided for the advanced student in accelerated courses of general science, biology, physics, and chemistry. The Chicago Public Schools Science Fairs are an added incentive for many students.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

With the advent of the "jet age", it is imperative that our social science studies be practical as well as informative. "One World" has become a reality. Historical, geographical, and governmental studies act as links to a better world understanding of people and their surroundings. The changing of the social studies curriculum by adding Comparative Government, American Problems courses, and the combination of civics and United States history act as cohesive forces toward our ultimate goal of world peace. This ideology of world peace is further strengthened by such school activities as the Human Relations and Pan-American Clubs and the World Discussion Group.

LANGUAGE

Due to the ever-shortening distance between the United States and its neighbors, the National Defense Act has provided for an experimental language program in American schools. As a part of this plan, South Shore is one of the two high schools in Chicago which have a language laboratory equipped with facilities for thirty-five students. By listening to lessons, poems, and stories on tapes or records, students gain pronunciation and comprehension skills and an appreciation of foreign culture. Through the language laboratory, the United States hopes to go one step further in the breakdown of the language barrier and one step closer to the human ideal of peace and understanding between nations.

Students listen intently to language records in order to improve their pronunciation skills.

COMMERCIAL

In keeping pace with an ever increasing demand for skilled white-collar workers, the commercial department strives to develop consistently top business personnel. The varied sequences, shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, commercial law, business training and salesmanship, prepare a student for a rewarding career. As encouragement for diligence, several nationwide commercial contests are held annually in which South Shore students are encouraged to compete.

HOME ECONOMICS

The one occupation that is of interest to more women than any other is that of home-making. This not only includes the art of sewing, home management, and planning and preparing meals, but also covers the finer aspects of gracious living such as interior decorating and family welfare. These basic requirements are included in the curriculum of the Home Economics Department. To gain additional experience in meal planning and sewing, the members of the classes have acted as hostesses at various school functions.

Miss Lucy Mulloy, Chairman

Mrs. Patricia Hallisy

ART

By assigning projects in which ability can be discovered and by showing movies on diversified subjects related to art, teachers instill in the student an awareness and appreciation of this subject. All the work that was done in the art department this year led up to the Field Day Demonstration, which was held in May at Washington High School. Each teacher had her class specialize in one facet of the art program.

MUSIC

Attempting to interest the students in the various fields of music is the main job of this department. South Shore accomplishes this task by enabling the student to select band, orchestra, a choral group, or a general music course. As a result of their becoming acquainted with the many pleasures a musical background offers, many students continue their studies, and music becomes an important part of their later life.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION BOYS

It is the purpose of the Boys' Physical Education Department to develop the boys of South Shore into individuals who are physically and socially prepared for life. Through athletic and aquatic instruction, these boys become coordinated, agile, and healthy. Wholesome individual and team competition teaches them how to get along well with others, how to face problems independently, and how to win or lose well. Health courses, which instruct the boys in the care of the body through the knowledge of hygiene and anatomy, complete the program.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

GIRLS

Through its many activities, the Girls' Gym Department contributes to the making of a well-adjusted individual. Volleyball, captain basketball, and speedball provide fun while supplying experience in working cooperatively with others. Calisthenics develop coordination, while swimming teaches grace and provides practice in a skill useful for a lifetime. Meanwhile, mental attitudes are not overlooked, for in health classes, problems in hygiene and general physical well-being are discussed. Thus healthy bodies are developed to house healthy minds.

SCHOOL ANTHEM

SCHOOL OF OUR DREAMS

School of our dreams, thy children we
Pledge now our hearts and hands to thee;
Our love shall grow as years roll by,
Strengthened by friendship's golden tie.

We shall be true in word and deed,
Thy voice of inspiration heed;
Thy lofty aims our goal shall be,
Thy precepts wise to life our key.

Thy stately halls to us grow dear.
Mem'ry will hold forever near;
Thy colors we see floating high,
Symbols fair of earth and sky.

CHORUS

SCHOOL OF OUR DREAMS
SOUTH SHORE, SOUTH SHORE
THY NAME WE'LL PRAISE,
FOREVERMORE.

Through Membership in the National Honor Society

The motto of the National Honor Society, "Noblesse Oblige," Obligations of the Noblest, dates back to feudal times. In the Middle Ages, because the nobles had more wealth and power than common people, they were admired and respected. These men were obligated to use their fortunes for the benefit of the serfs.

Taking care of the bulletin board is one of the ways in which these students serve the school.

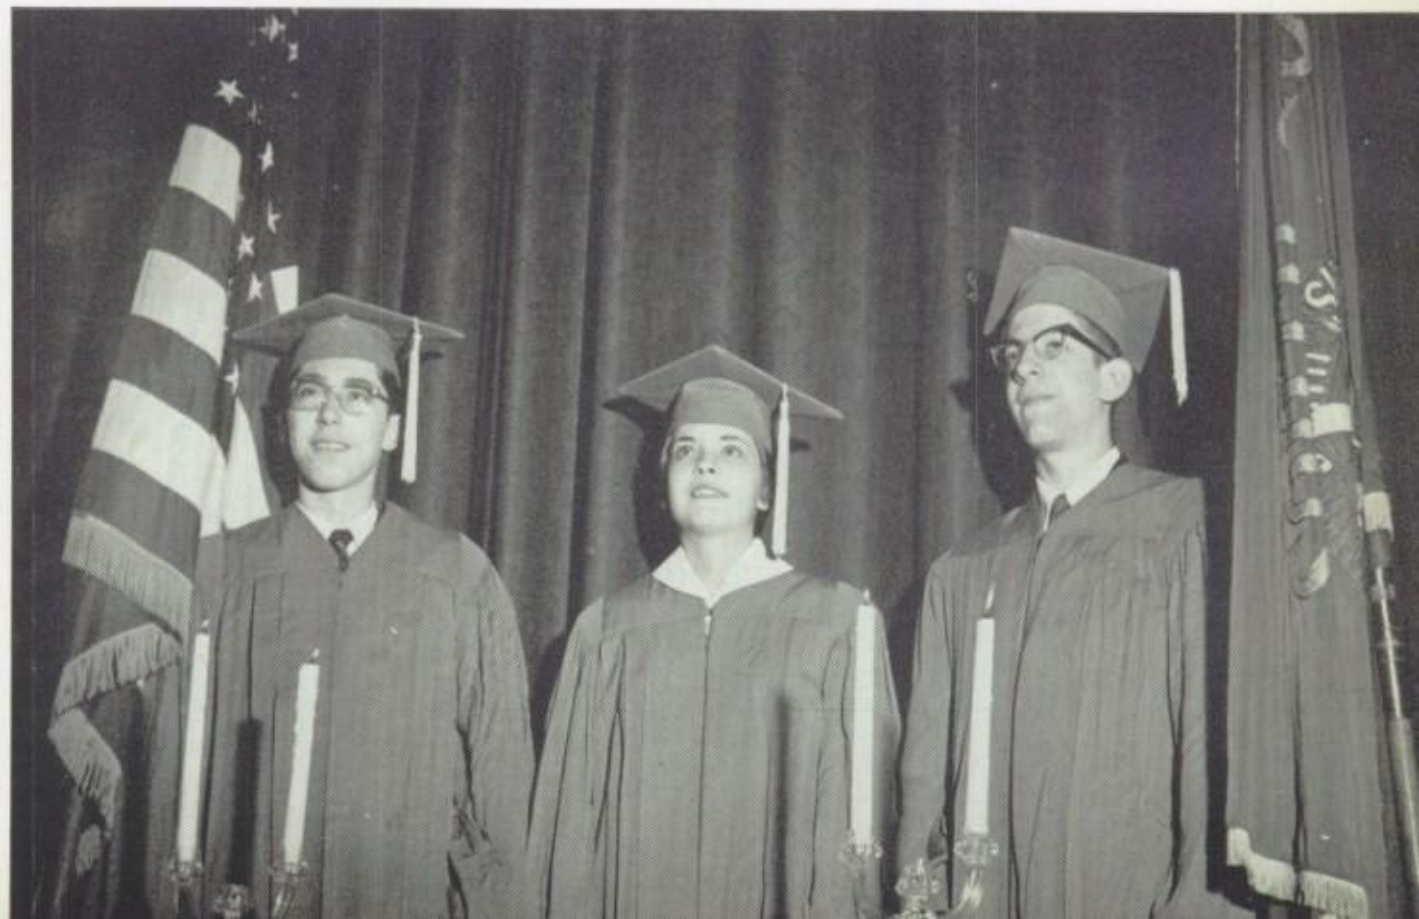

Irene Rath, Judy Ray, Linda Isaacson, Sherron Meyer, Robert Marx, Avis Mandel, Kay Pomerance, Suzanne Levison, Jolene Nagakura, Suzanne Katz, Paul Levin, Carol Newmann, Judy Rubin.

Jack Kramer, president; Rosemary Hanson, vice-president; and Arnold Revzin, treasurer, participate in the traditional candle lighting ceremony.

Today in our high schools, we recognize a different type of nobility. We no longer think in terms of money, but in terms of high standards of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Above-average students possessing these qualities are eligible for membership in the National Honor Society and are chosen twice yearly by a faculty committee headed by Miss Dorothy Bock. Only five per cent of the 3A, 4B, and 4A classes is chosen each semester, totalling the top fifteen per cent of each class at the time of graduation.

An impressive induction ceremony is held for those students upon whom the honor of membership is bestowed.

The Students Service League Has an Endless Job

Housewives claim that their work is never done. Certainly, the S.S.L. has discovered that it also has an endless job caring for its household, South Shore. Under the supervision of Mistress Florence Bergstrand, S.S.L. officers, committee chairmen, and student body strive to improve South Shore.

This year's talent show, MAKE MINE COUNTRY STYLE, proved to be both a tremendous success and a great booster for the budget. With the aid of additional profits from social events such as CUPID KAPERS, BALLOT BOUNCE, and the traditional WAGON WHEEL DANCE, new auditorium spotlights will be purchased and installed very soon. The highlight of AUTUMN AMBLE, a dance co-sponsored by the S.S.L. and Booster Club, was the announcement of the football team's new captains.

The Student Service League functions in many other ways. Pilots, big brothers and sisters, stress the importance of both scholarship and school participation to incoming freshmen. Publicity of all school events and the large turnouts at them revealed a growing family bond among the students at South Shore.

Turn Out a Fine Newspaper for South Shore

News about school functions and achievements, announcements and reports of athletic events, and plain hilarity converge to make up South Shore's newspaper, the Shore Line. Working mutually to present the South Shore student with a newspaper that is both informative and entertaining are the three separate branches of the Shore Line staff. Members of the Literary Staff write the articles for the paper; members of the Distribution Staff see that every student subscribing gets his copy; and members of the Business Staff handle the paper's pecuniary matters.

This year, Mr. John Carroll, sponsor of the Literary Staff, joined the ranks of the emeritus as he was succeeded by Mr. Thomas Connelly, who will carry on Mr. Carroll's high standards and fine work. Continuing in her position as Business Staff sponsor is Miss Camille Jacques. The fall semester editor-in-chief, Betty Conn, was succeeded by James Weaver. Lauren Soll continued to do an excellent job as business manager.

Through the Quill and Scroll, an honorary international journalistic fraternity, South Shore recognizes its seniors who have submitted high caliber material as members of the school's literary activities, the SHORE LINE or the TIDE. Also necessary for membership is a scholastic rating in the upper third of the class.

The world of literature with all its enchanting phases is explored by the members of the Literary Club. Under the leadership of student chairmen appointed each week, works are discussed and analyzed by the members. This exposure to new vistas of literary knowledge, under the supervision of Miss Amy Mackie, undoubtedly aids the student in using his leisure time profitably.

Literary Club members, Judy Tischler, Caryl Weinstein, Charlotte Herr, Diane Brooks, and Sharon Good, find the library a good place to catch up on reading.

Pilots Serve as Guiding Lights to Our Freshmen

When freshmen enter the portals of our school at the beginning of each semester, they are bewildered by the strangeness of their unfamiliar surroundings. The Pilots, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Florence Bergstrand, steer these students into their proper paths. Each new division has a boy and a girl pilot to help the freshmen over the rough spots in their new experiences. Composed of outstanding seniors, this organization has been a guiding light for many "freshies."

Under the direction of Mr. Cobb and the impetus of interested students, South Shore organized a debate team. Each year the debate team will be given a new topic on which to do research. The topic for this year was, "Resolved: That the federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions."

South Shore, along with nine other schools, has started an intersection debate tournament. The winning team is selected by several judges, who give points on presentation, clarity of thought, and logic of argument.

Stage Crew Shows Electronic and Artistic Ability

"Willingness to work," say Mr. Clifford Cobb, sponsor in charge of personnel of the Stage Crew, and Mr. John Sommer, in charge of repair and maintenance of the stage, "is the most important factor in becoming a member of the crew." Among the various duties of the group are the setting up of chairs on the stage for assemblies and musical presentations, operation of the house lights and spotlights, and the production and arrangement of scenery and props.

To stimulate interest in the fields of electronics and radio operation is the purpose of South Shore's newly organized Radio Club. Under the guidance of Mr. John Sommer, the boys have built a vacuum tube volt meter and a transmitter, receiver, and antenna.

The Audio-Visual Department has grown in size and ability. First, due to the opening of the language laboratory, the aides have become increasingly important. To train the boys to run the special audio equipment there, a special program has been arranged. Second, new teaching aids such as an opaque projector, slide projectors, a set of portable screens, and special equipment for recording tapes for the regular curriculum work have been added.

To wander through the halls between classes without a pass is to invite a stern reprimand from the hall guards. These guardians of the corridors work hard to live up to their motto, "Keep the halls clean and clear." Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Barry, our hall guards pick up papers and limit the amount of noise. They also give directions to visitors and confused students.

Industrious Students Pass Out Books and Supplies

The storeroom, under the supervision of Miss Amy Mackie, is run with the same efficiency that can be found in its counterpart in any large modern corporation. There one views an able staff busily at work sorting and caring for supplies as well as filling orders, selling locks, and assigning lockers.

"Don't drop those packages, Roger!" say storeroom aides.

South Shore Students Serve School and Humanity

Our hostess club welcomes its new members at the annual tea.

At table clockwise: Marcia Saks, Lynne Rutzky, Susan Richardson, Leslie Rodman, Diane Brooks, Charlotte Herr.

Standing clockwise: Edna Schwartz, Jerilyn Isenberg, Janice Harwood, Barbara Sokolec, Karalyn Friedman, Carole Gardner, Carol Wiborg, Roberta Siegel, Rita Biltzer, Elaine Wayne, Eva Saphir.

This year, under the able direction of Miss Lucy Mulloy and Mrs. Patricia Hallisy, the girls of Nautilae have been busy. Besides giving their annual teas for new members and graduating seniors, the girls welcomed incoming freshmen at a joint party with the S.S.L., served at the P.T.A. Fathers' Night, and enjoyed a demonstration of flower arranging. The Christmas season rolled around to find Nautilae members making puppets for a children's hospital, and donating a basket of food to a needy family.

South Shore's chapter of the Junior Red Cross is busily on the job. This year its members, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Margaret Donahue, aided the S.S.L.'s Charity Committee in reaching its high goal of $1,100. The J.R.C. carried on, single-handed, the cancelled stamp collection which was marked by the appearance of a giant mail box in our main corridor. The stamps deposited in it were used for the entertainment and the therapy of patients in hospitals across the nation.

To prepare for their big charity drive, Junior Red Cross members arm themselves with necessary equipment.

Clubs Help Students Prepare for Future Careers

Twenty little girls had a happier Christmas because members of the Future Nurses Association of South Shore High School entertained them at a party at the Kenwood-Ellis Community Center. These students, all interested in nursing as a profession, meet monthly under the guidance of Miss Winifred Cormany. Their planned activities include teas, lectures on nursing, films, and trips to places of medical interest. All of their activities center around nursing as a career.

A career in teaching is of interest to other students in their junior and senior years. They are given a chance to explore opportunities and advantages in this field by joining the Future Teachers of America. A special feature of a panel discussion by South Shore's newly assigned teachers helped attract both sexes, as this year the club welcomed its first male member, Jerry Adelman. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Isabel Lassen.

Language Clubs Undertake "Novus-Nouveau-Nuevo" Project

Our Latin, French, and Spanish clubs have undertaken the attractive maintenance of one of South Shore's hallway bulletin boards. The three organizations rotate its care bi-weekly to inform their respective students of pertinent events here and abroad. Artistic contributions by the club members brighten the hall on many a dreary morning.

Natural curiosities concerning foreign civilizations are satisfied by the various activities of our language clubs. Armchair tours of the romance language nations, which help the students to better understanding of foreign cultures and the world about them, are conducted under the able guidance of Miss Catherine Bond, Le Cercle Francais; Miss Frances Curtis, the Pan-American Club; and Mr. Thomas Connelly, the Latin Club.

Supplying the student body with a richness in classical and semi-classical music is the task of the South Shore Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Samuel Gorbach. Members of the orchestra were acclaimed for performances at the P.T.A. tea and at the Kiwanis Club luncheon held at the South Shore Country Club Hotel. Other achievements of orchestra members included participation of Judy Kohn, French horn, in the annual solo competition sponsored by the Board of Education and the selection of Dan Lipscomb, tuba, and David Goldberg, French horn, from auditions of Chicago high school students to play in a brass ensemble which assisted the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in performances of Tschaikowsky's 1812 OVERTURE in the final Youth Concerts of the season.

Musicians Jack Kramer and Judith Kohn Receive

As beginning instrumental students become more accomplished musically and finally evolve into Senior Band members, band and school spirit develops within them. With Mr. Gorbach supervising and directing, the band tackles instrumental solos, symphonic band arrangements of popular pieces, and lesser-known scores. In order to keep the band in the public eye, capable officers are elected every semester. These were, for the fall semester: Bob Block, president; Stuart Kagan, vice-president; and Sherry Hartigan, secretary-treasurer. For the spring semester, the persons in authority were: Judy Kohn, who made history as the first girl president; Henry Wertheimer, vice-president; and again, Sherry Hartigan, secretary-treasurer.

Among the notable achievements of the band this year were performances at the freshie assembly, at the Spring Festival, and at the Wagon Wheel Game.

Second row: Lynn Nelson, Maurice Swee, Karen Kahn, Jacqueline Jordan, David Alexander, Nancy Simon.

Third row: David Goldberg, Wayne Kaplan, Robert Margolis, Dan Marx, Ken Heyman, Henry Wertheimer.

Arion Awards for Their Outstanding Abilities

The Arion Award, given to the most outstanding musician, went to our trumpet virtuoso, Jack Kramer, in a special award assembly in the fall semester. He also had the special honor of appearing as a soloist at his own graduation program. This opportunity has never been given to anyone before.

In the spring semester, the Arion Award went to French horn player Judy Kohn.

Aside from the material rewards, the band offers many pleasant experiences to its members. The young instrumentalists learn to recognize and play good music and at the same time become acquainted with all the instruments of the band.

Senior Girls' Chorus Gives Girls Musical Enjoyment

Sr. Girls' Chorus meets once every day
Relying on Miss Long to show them the way.

Great are their traditions,
Initiation the best,
R.O.T.C. assemblies among the rest.
Letters are given to those faithful lasses whose Service is best during all chorus classes.

Christmas caroling at South Shore Bank,
Honoring their mothers at a tea to say thanks,
Opportunity arises to sing for P.T.A.
Royally they perform in their own special way.
Using their voices they sing loud and clear at Spring Festival ending a successful year.

Junior Girls' Chorus Acquires Musical Skills

During fifth period every day, strains of music from Room 121 are heard. This music is that of the Junior Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Miss Agatha Long. In Junior Chorus, girls are given the opportunity to study three-part harmony and become better acquainted with all types of music. They also receive the necessary training to make them eligible for Senior Chorus. While learning music, the girls perform with the "Seniors" for such occasions as singing Christmas carols at the South Shore National Bank and holding their annual Mothers' Tea in May.

Gathered around the piano, Jr. Girls' Chorus officers try out new music.

Clockwise: Judy Ray, president; Jean Mayer, corresponding secretary; Linda Wiss, recording secretary; Sandra Brodine, treasurer.

They Blend Their Voices in Sounds so Clear

The Junior Mixed Chorus of South Shore High
Enables each student in singing to try
To blend his voice in sounds so clear,
Which makes this chorus delightful to hear.
Mr. Arthur Diamond capably directs,
And all our errors he corrects.
Musical knowledge one may learn,
And at the same time he may earn
Music credit, points, or letter,
And thus can make the chorus better.
At Yuletide season one may hear
The chorus singing its good cheer.
At the annual festival in the spring,
The choristers' voices proudly ring.

Senior Mixed Chorus Shines in Spring Festival

Students at South Shore are afforded the opportunity of widening their musical horizons by becoming members of the Senior Mixed Chorus. Under the able tutelage of Mr. Arthur Diamond, the chorus has reached unexcelled peaks of musical perfection through the enthusiasm engendered by its director.

Membership is open to students coming from the ranks of the Junior Mixed Chorus. After two years of continued service, members become eligible for choral letters.

This spring, at the annual festival, the chorus participated in an unusual program based on the character Johnny Appleseed, John Planer acted as narrator, and Philip Becker was the baritone soloist. Kay Smith, alto; Adrian Damer, bass; and Janet Larson, soprano; were also featured singers. Numbers such as, "The Wells Fargo Wagon" and "Ride the Chariot", which were excellently performed by the Junior and Senior Mixed Choruses, added that extra sparkle to the program.

"For Every Child, the Highest Advantages"

During the 1959-1960 school year, the South Shore High School Parent-Teacher Association adopted as its motto the phrase, "For every child, the highest advantages." These words express the aim of the P.T.A. to promote the welfare of children in their homes, at school, and in the community.

P.T.A. officers present their reports at a monthly meeting.

Mrs. J. C. Morgan, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. C. A. Ward, treasurer; Mrs. James L. Rood, recording secretary; Mrs. Alton J. Baird, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Joseph Sheridan, president.

Is P.T.A.'s Motto

P.T.A. members prepare the tea table for their meeting.

Mrs. William Underwood, Publicity Chairman; Mrs. Clifford Bueschel, Health Chairman; Mrs. Harry Larson, Social Chairman; Mrs. Julian Tishler, Regional Delegate.

Mrs. L. Weston, Mrs. Harry Oppenheimer, Mrs. Sydney R. Weisberg, and Mrs. Hans Rasmussen listen attentively as Mrs. Charles Johnson reviews the P.T.A. activities of the past year to fellow committee chairmen.

Annually, in the past years, the P.T.A. has presented a scholarship of $250 to a deserving graduate. During the last few semesters, the group's interest in such a scholarship program has increased so greatly that it can make available one scholarship every semester. Barbara Evans, a January graduate, was the most recent recipient of this award.

Other programs sponsored by the P.T.A. have included a faculty tea in September, Fathers' Night in November, and a faculty luncheon and an Open House in May.

Under the guidance of the new head coach, Mr. Sid Kaz, the Tars finished the season in third place, narrowly missing a playoff berth. The team won four games, lost three games by a total of seventeen points, and tied one game. After trouncing Foreman in the season's opener, the Tars fought to a scoreless tie with Hirsch. Sorely handicapped by numerous penalties in the Roosevelt game, South Shore lost by one touchdown. Farragut scored the winning touchdown in the closing minutes of its game with South Shore, although we had the ball in enemy territory when time ran out. The Tars played their best game of the season against arch-rival Hyde Park in the annual Wagon-Wheel Game. The powerful Indians, who eventually won the Blue-Division Championship, finally overpowered the smaller and lighter Tar eleven. Despite this heart breaking defeat, the team got hot and won the last three games.

Graduation will take such stalwarts as Dave Koenig, elected this year's most valuable player; Mark Robbins and Alton Baird, all league selections; Dick Hirsch and Dick Martin, 1959 co-captains; and Damon Van Tuyl and Colin Moran, defensive standouts. The 1960 co-captains, Bill Hyman, all league choice, and Ted Bavly will have a group of experienced and promising players next season.

Cagers Levin and Weaver Receive All-City Honors

Featuring an evenly-balanced squad under the able leadership of Coach Roger Inman, the Tars finished with a better than .500 season. Jim Weaver and Paul Levin both received all-city and all-section honors, with Paul grabbing the South Section "Player of the Year" Award and an honorable mention on the All-Chicago-Area Team. The season was highlighted with impressive victories and heart-breaking defeats.

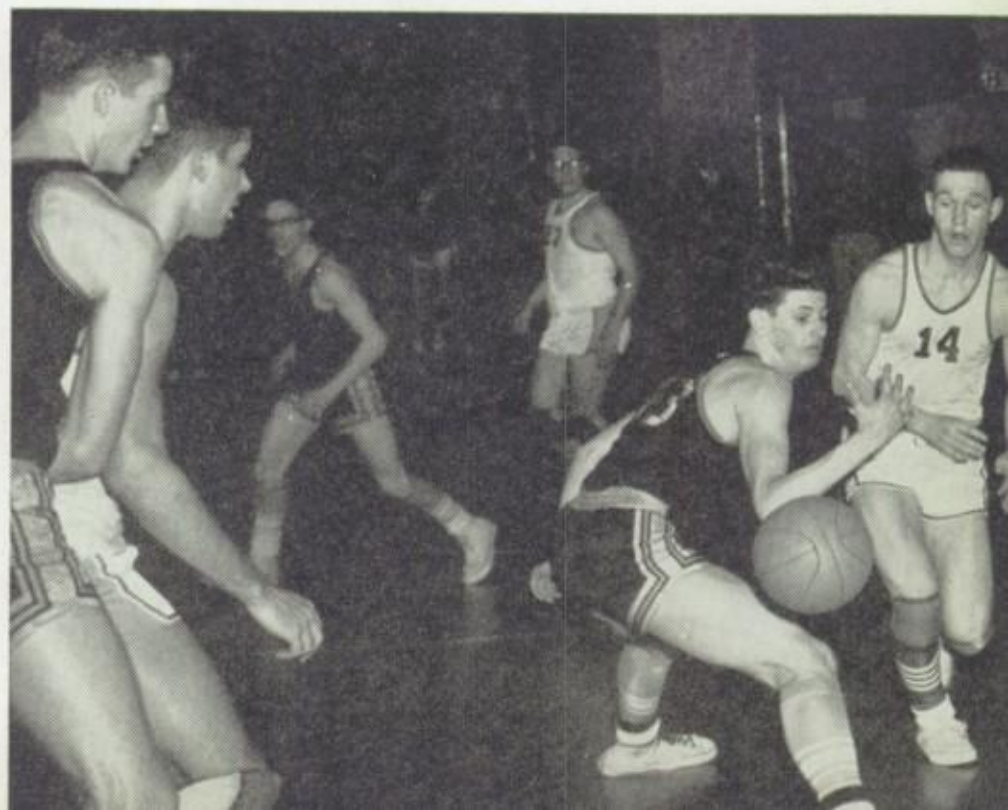

The Tars started their march to third place with an overtime victory against Fenger, a league power, 55-54. In the closing seconds of the regulation time, Mitch Komaiko scored on a jump shot from the corner, tying the game 49-49. In the overtime, Paul Levin tallied the remaining six points. The Tars then went on to outclass Bowen, 68-58.

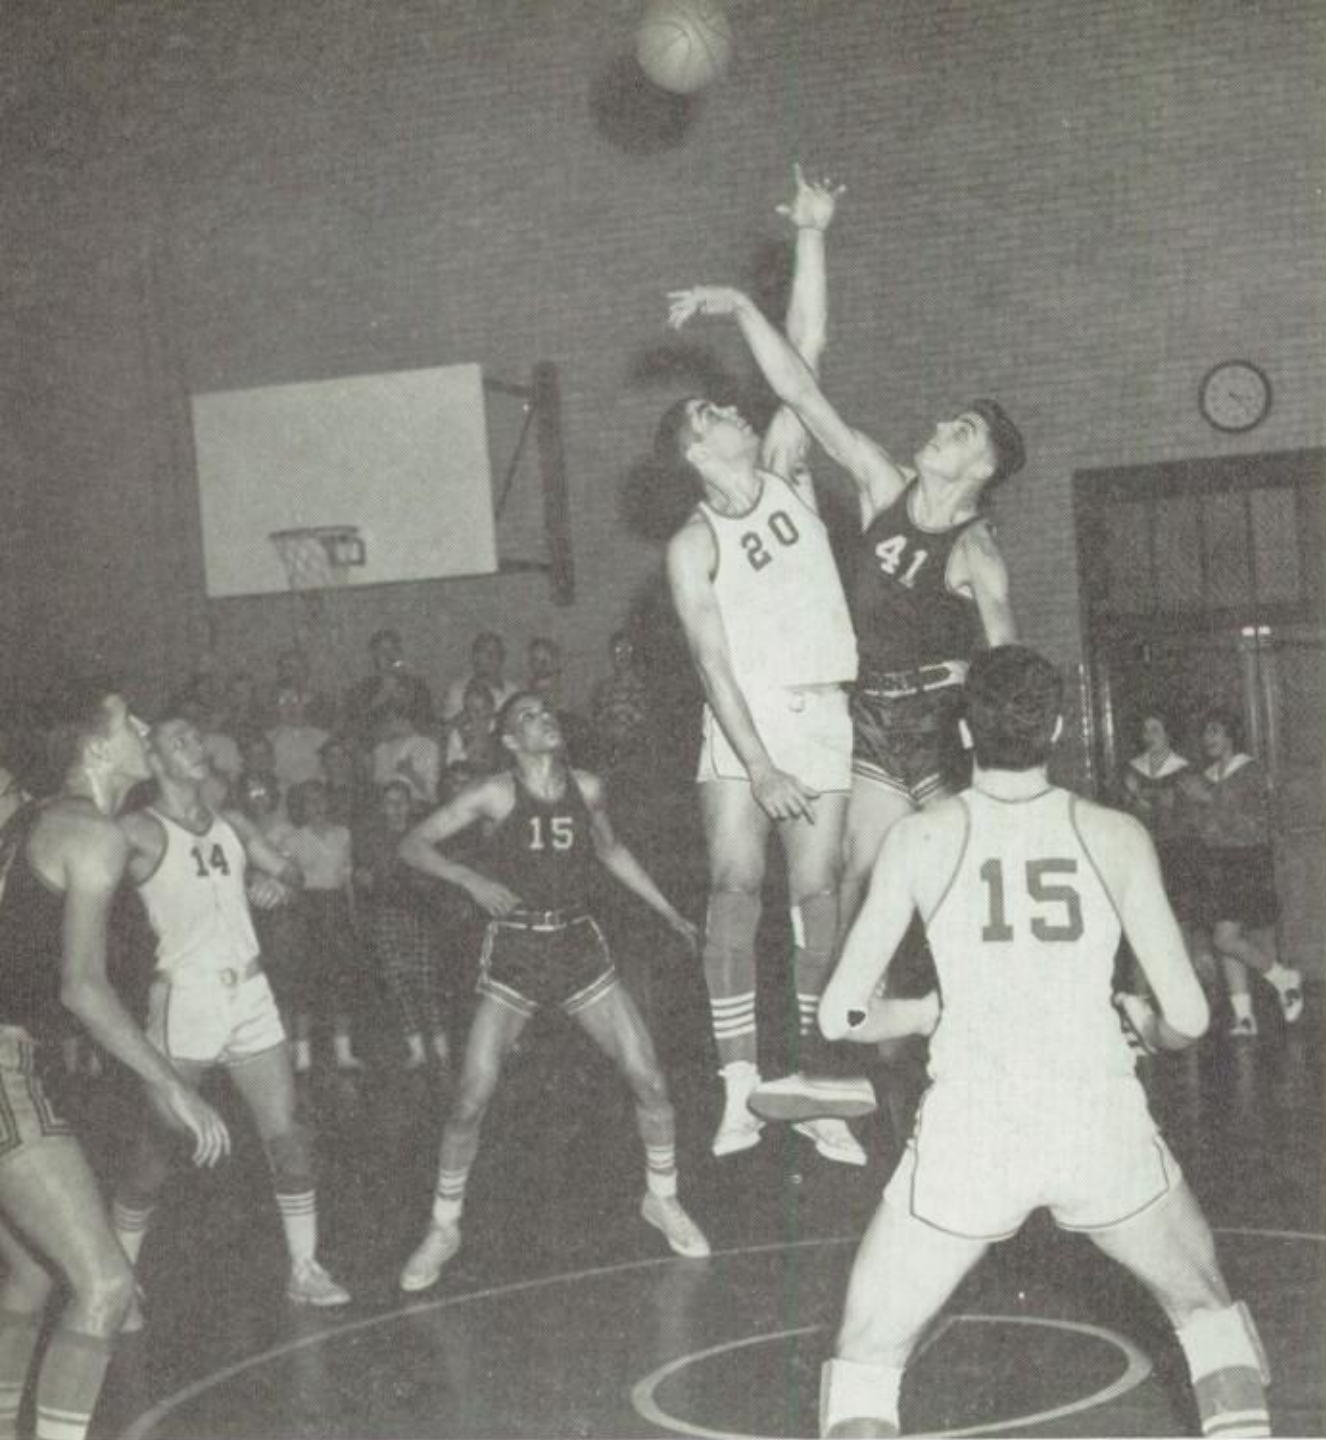

In the second round of the tourney, the cagers conquered Calumet, 48-43, and Bowen, 63-52. Leading the attack against Calumet, Jim Weaver poured 19 points through the hoop. The Tars then lost a tough one to league champ, Vocational, 51-47.

After gaining a playoff position for the third straight year, the Tars lost a hard-fought game 83-69 to a city power, Carver, which had previously defeated the team, 74-51.

In exhibition games, the senior cagers routed St. Francis, 43-26 and 70-34, beat Kelly 53-48, and lost a close one, 62-61, to Hyde Park. A highly rated Farragut quintet also fell to the Tars twice, 58-53 and 72-67. Paul Levin scored 25 points in the first game before fouling out with two minutes to go in the first half. In the same game, Bill Elson's magnificent play-making and ball-handling kept the taller Admirals from gaining possession of the ball.

The Tars can look forward to next year with the return of three starters. Jim Weaver, Mitch Komaiko, and Roger Lange. Besides these boys, almost the entire second string will be back, along with the boys from the Frosh-Soph Team.

*league (P) playoff

With the realignment of the public league, the Frosh-Soph basketball team sped to a first place finish in the tough Red Division. They won seven of their eight games, spoiling their perfect league season by a two point loss to Fenger. Their overall season record was 15-6 with a .714 winning percentage.

This year's Frosh-Soph was mainly a second half ball club. Trailing by half time in most games, they rallied in the second half to win. Typical of this quality was the victory over C.V.S. South Shore was losing by three points at half-time; holding C.V.S. to 7 points in the second half, they won by 12 points.

Joel Goodman and Don Larson, a double scoring threat, were lost to the team at mid-season. Goodman moved out of the district and will be sorely missed; Larson

These 1A's, John Donlop, Glen Fefferman, and Rich Halpern, turned in excellent performances after mid-season when they became eligible. Those outstanding youngsters have a full season of eligibility on the Frosh-Soph left.

The 1 point loss to Hirsch in a play-off game was a big disappointment to the boys. Next year's team should prove to be equally as successful with the return of these starters and several experienced reserves.

Baseball Team Enters City League Playoffs

Led by their Co-Captains Dick Martin and Bill Grage, the South Shore Tars enjoyed one of the most successful seasons in their history. In their first league game of the season, Bill Grage, veteran pitcher, struck out fourteen Bowen batters to lead the team on to victory. He enabled the Tars to defeat, for the first time in seven years, the perennial baseball power, Fenger High School, 8 to 0, by yielding only two hits.

On the whole, the season was a great success with the Tars having an impressive 11-5 record at the conclusion of the league season. This fine record enabled the team to enter the City League Playoffs for the second consecutive year.

Tars Go Out in a Major Way for Minor Sports

By claiming the city championship, great honors have come to South Shore's tennis team this year. Except for a 2-3 loss to Fenger, a potential city finalist, the Tars sparkled under the coaching of Mr. Jerry Conforti. In the city finals, South Shore avenged its loss to Fenger by beating them 3-2. Mike Friduss and Barry Demovsky in doubles, and Jack Dschida in singles led the team on to the city championship.

Ever since 1946 when it was introduced, bowling has enjoyed great popularity at South Shore. In the past, our teams have reached great heights in the city tournament; and although the team did not fare too well this season, Mr. Becker, sponsor, anticipates greater success next year. This year's boys' league champions were Lee Epstein, Barry Demovsky, Al Barsky, Mike Strauss, and Barry Schmarak. The Ten Pins, comprised of Joyce Aaronson, Vicky Kramer, Nancy Marx, and Marcy Baron finished the season as girls' league champs.

Optimistic Future Foreseen for Track and Wrestling

With an eager squad and a new coach, track started on its way toward becoming a major sport at South Shore. In past years, little enthusiasm had been directed toward the sport; but this year, spring practice drew a large and enthusiastic group of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Coach Robert Gelfond subjected the squad to a vigorous training program, and in the process discovered much talent that will very likely be a future threat to the long established league teams.

During its second season in league competition, South Shore's wrestling team reaped the rewards of careful training. Under the watchful eye of Coach Sidney Kaz, the team entered the ring with a strong squad and achieved a 3 win, 4 loss, 3 tie season record. The highlights of the year occurred in an upset victory over Calumet and the individual performances of the team members in the All-City Wrestling Meet, where the mighty Perry Segal placed second in the 103 pound class, Jack Hurwitz took third in the 145 pound class, and John Borland at 127 pounds and Greg Kane at 138 captured two fourth places.

Adelman Twins Star in City Meets

Distinguishing themselves under the guidance of Coach Jerry Conforti, the senior tankmen placed fourth as a team in the first city meet. Here Jim Adelman took first in the 200 yard free style. Jerry Adelman, Jim's twin brother, placed in both the 100 yard free style and the individual medley.

With more experience, the Tars took third in the second city meet. Maier and Greene swam to sixth in the backstroke and breaststroke, respectively. Jerry Adelman placed second in the 100 yard free style and fourth in the 120 yard individual medley. Jim Adelman was again first in the 200 yard free style with a time of 2:07.8. Maier, Greene, Odman, and Anglin formed the relay team which took third.

Boys' and Girls' Groups Swim to Watery Success

This year with the aid of Coach Jerry Conforti, our Junior Swim Team splashed to a sixth place berth in the city meets largely through the efforts of Ken Halpern and Captain Jim Gleave. One of the team's outstanding victories included the meet with Bowen when our boys trounced the Boilermakers 60-7.

Every Monday, fourth period, the mermaids of South Shore practice such aquatic skills as back dolphins, somersaults, and synchronized swimming under the able direction of Mrs. Patricia Cox. This year, the girls made a big splash when they performed on Fathers' Night in May. A circus theme prevailed, and serious acts as well as humorous ones were presented.

The South Shore cheerleading squad, consisting of twelve enthusiastic, school-spirited girls, leads the cheers at all pep rallies and football and basketball games. Last fall they added spice to the talent show by doing a cha-cha-cha kickline. In the spring, following an old tradition, they invited cheerleaders from other schools to be their guests at their annual play-day. Sponsored by Mrs. Betty Lee Feldman, and led by Barbara Evans and Sue Merlander, captains, the squad fostered school spirit throughout the student body.

Under the leadership of two fine commanding officers, Lieutenant Colonel Frederick Rosenberg, fall semester, and Lieutenant Colonel Dennis Wickstrom, spring semester, South Shore's R.O.T.C. was again among the outstanding units in the city. Two instructors, M/Sgt. Robert Lockwood and M/Sgt. James Rovano provided the corps with expert, conscientious guidance. This year's rifle team, composed of five returning lettermen, made a vast improvement over last year's, finishing fourth in district competition. The Exhibition Squad, under the direction of 2nd Lt. James Boyd, gave many outstanding performances, including an exhibition of precision drill in the City Council chambers. Ray Quisenberry, a junior, won an appointment to the City Cadet Corps Staff as a captain.

For the first time in many years, the unit was forced to hold its annual formal inspection indoors due to inclement weather. On May 10th, the review was presented in the 71st Street Armory; and although greatly hindered by lack of space, the cadets made a fine showing being highly commended by the inspecting officer, Major T. S. Timberlake.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Tide Staff wishes to express its appreciation to all who rendered helpful assistance in creating the Tide Yearbook of 1960.

We wish to thank our principal, Mary D. Mulroy, for her helpful criticism and guidance.

We further wish to acknowledge the courtesy of the Keystone View Co. for their permission to use their copyrighted photograph No. 13499, of the Scandinavian weaver (symbolizing "The Start", pages 8 and 9) and similarly the courtesy of the Curtis Publishing Co. for their special permission to reproduce their photograph by David Attie, reprinted from their 1958 issue of HOLIDAY Magazine (symbolizing "The Selection", pages 6 and 7), — together with the kind permission of Lenore Tawney, the noted weaver herself, appearing in same.

We are also very grateful to Mrs. Else Regensteiner, head of the Weaving Department, Art Institute of Chicago, who gave so generously of her time and knowledge in setting up the loom and acquainting us with the weaving technique.

We desire, also, to thank Esther M. Wendell, Instructor of Weaving at Hull House, Chicago, for her aid in familiarizing us with the weaving field, and the loan of her mother's yarn cards; likewise, Mrs. Lucile Robinson, one of our sponsors, for the use of her yarn cards, yard winder, spinning wheel, and handwoven Colonial coverlet, all family heirlooms.

Acknowledgement also is due Mr. Leander Hagerty of the Leander Company, publishers of this yearbook, and their patient and able photographer, Mr. Sam Becker, Leander Studio, Inc.
